WHAT IS THE PMP®
CERTIFICATION?

If you're new to project management, you may not have heard about the Project Management Professional (PMP®) certification from Project Management Institute, Inc. (PMI®). As the world's leading authority on project management, PMI® created the PMP® Certification to recognize project managers who have proven they have the skills to successfully manage projects. According to PMI.org, there are over 1.2 million PMP® certification holders worldwide. This certification has become the most recognized and highly sought-after certification in the world.

Once you have decided that you want to earn a PMP®, there are a few things to do before you take the exam.

Fill out the application

In order to sit for the exam, your application must be approved by PMI®. In this application, PMI® will determine whether you meet the minimum requirements of:

- A Four-year degree
- 36 months leading projects
- 35 hours of project management education/training or the CAPM® Certification

OR

- A high school diploma or an associate's degree (or global equivalent)
- 60 months leading projects
- 35 hours of project management education/training or the CAPM® Certification

www.pmi.org

Most students will complete all the application except for the 35 project management education hours prior to coming to a Boot Camp. You will earn these hours during the Boot Camp. Completing as much of the application as possible before the Boot Camp will give you more study time later and will allow you to be approved to sit for the exam sooner.

Download the Course Outline

This outline will explain the tasks and topic areas for the exam. By becoming familiar with the exam content, you will know where to focus your studies. The PMI® way of answering a question isn't always what you would commonly do on a project. Learning how to think like PMI® will help you choose the correct answer.

Things to Consider

The PMP® Exam Prep Boot Camp is very intense and demanding, so clear your calendar! Expect to study each evening. Plan on taking the exam a week after the Boot Camp so the information is still fresh in your mind.

Preparing for the PMP® exam requires a commitment. Preparing as much as you can before a Boot Camp will increase the amount of time you have to study and review the material after the class. We would love to help you achieve this goal! Make plans now to attend one of our 2023 PMP® Exam Prep Boot Camps.

Course Description: If you are taking this certification course, you probably have some professional exposure to the duties of a project manager, or you may be considering embarking on a career in professional project management. Your ability as a project manager to demonstrate best practices in project management—both on the job and through professional certification—is becoming the standard to compete in today's fast-paced and highly technical workplace. In this course, you will apply the generally recognized practices of project management acknowledged by the Project Management Institute to successfully manage projects.

This course is specifically designed to provide you with the proven, practical body of project management knowledge and skills that you need to demonstrate project management mastery on the job. This course is a significant part of your preparation for the Project Management Professional (PMP®) Certification Exam.

The course enables candidates to develop professionally, increase their project management skills, apply a formalized and standards-based approach to project management, and seek career advancement by moving into a formal project manager job role, as well as to apply for Project Management Institute, Inc. (PMI®) PMP® certification.

The Mathis Group PMP® Exam Guarantee: In the unlikely event you do not pass the PMP® exam the first time, The Mathis Group will pay for your second attempt within 30 days. If you do not pass the PMP® exam the second time, we will pay for the third attempt within 30 days. *Note: The Mathis Group will pay the retake fee amount that is applied to PMI® members. The Mathis Group will not pay for any rescheduling fees assessed by PMI®.
